

Workshop: First steps on Pre-historic lithic industries

The aims and scope of this workshop are (1) to acquire the fundamental basis to recognize stone-tools, (2) became able to describe and fit each artifact in the major stone-tool groups and (3) know how to make the basic characterization of a stone-tool assemblage.

Instructor: Telmo Pereira (University of Algarve).

Public: participants on the CAPN field camp; external participants.

Time: 12 hours during 3 days (19, 20 and 21 July 2017).

Program:

Cores and blanks (first day);

Retouch tools (second day);

Data analysis (computer needed)(third day).

Registration fee for free participants (does not include stay): 30 euros.

A certificate of participation will be provided.